RETREAT OF SERBIANS IS STILL KEPT UP AS BULGARS NEAR MONASTIR

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.) (30)

LONDON, Nov. 19.—No dispatches have been received either from Athens or Saloniki since early Thursday morning and this lack of telegraphic communication is regarded as ominous for the progress of the Serbian army, which is engaged in a difficult retreat. Unconfirmed reports have come through Rome and Paris that Bulgarian advance guards have entered Monastir but they are regarded here with suspicion. According to official statements, however, almost four-fifths of Serbia already is overrun by the Austro-Bulgarian and Bulgarians whose advance into the mountain kingdom is very rapid.

The Austro-German advance from the northwest approaches Srebrenica, having reached to the north of Raska. The line passes through Kursumlija and Badan, ending at a point between Leskovatz and Vrnja. The occupation of Kursumlija gives the invaders close to Metrovitz and gives them the key to one of the great cross roads cutting Serbia from west to east.

The Serbian army is being forced between the limits of two mountain ranges, Metrovitz and Pristina, in the center and Pilep and Monastir on the south. The Serbians have the alternative of fighting where they stand or retreating.

There appears to be on hope that the British and French forces at Saloniki can give the Serbs any assistance in their difficult task. The railway from Metrovitz south is not available, as the Bulgarians bar the way at the Uekup junction and the Katchanik pass. The most available roads are not suitable for the transport of heavy guns and commissariat wagons.

The result of the conference of Denys Cochin, member of the Greek Cabinet, with the Greek ministers at Athens is still unknown. According to a statement in today's Times, the Greek Premier, Eleutherios, is not in favor of disarming and internment of the Anglo-Serbian troops should they be forced into Greek territory. There is reason to believe that should they be compelled to enter Greece, they will not be interned.

The morning newspapers, like the Post, protest strongly against the action given in the House of Lords for the leakage of decisions which they should be withheld.

SEVERE STORM OFF FLORIDA.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) (30)

ATLANTA (Ga.) Nov. 18.—A rain and wind storm swept the Atlantic Coast from middle Florida to Charleston, S. C., late yesterday, demoralizing wire communication. The wind reached a velocity of sixty miles an hour at Charleston. Late tonight the storm apparently had abated and communication with larger cities in the South had been partially restored. Only minor damage was reported.

The Norwegian bark Killena was driven ashore near Brunswick, Ga., and it was feared she might be battered to pieces. The Killena carried rosin for Norwegian ports.

PEACE PLAN FOR RUSSIA.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.) (30)

PARIS, Nov. 18 (11:10 p.m.).—The Rome correspondent of the Times says that according to a well-informed person who has returned from abroad, an attempt is being made to organize in Italy a Red Cross contingent under the direction of Prince von Salm, the former German Ambassador to Italy, which in reality is a peace congress to act especially and if necessary separately on the Austro-Hungarian delegate is to be Count Julius von Salm, the former Hungarian Premier, and the German delegate, Baron von Mecklenburg, who is related both to the Hohenzollern family and the Emperor of Russia.

RUSSIA'S RIFLE CONTRACT.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) (30)

CLEVELAND, Nov. 18.—A contract for the manufacture of 1,000,000 worth of rifles for the Russian army has been practically secured by Cleveland capitalists and New York munitions brokers, according to an announcement made today at the office of Charles O. Otis, a financier. Mr. Otis, who has just returned from New York, is said to have secured bids from a number of Cleveland manufacturers for the making of rifle parts and a new company is also to be formed.

THEODOR LESCHETITZKY.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.) (30)

DRESDEN, Nov. 17 (via London).—Theodor Leschetitzky, the famous teacher of the piano, is dead at the age of 85. He made his debut in Vienna in 1845 and for several years taught piano at St. Annen Conservatory.

NEW TINGLEY CHARGES IN SPALDING WILL CASE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 18.—What are the most sensational charges ever made against Mrs. G. Spalding in the legal annals of St. Louis? The answer is: The charges made against Mrs. G. Spalding and Mrs. Katharine Tingley, widow of the Point of View, in the will of Spalding. The amended contest contains many charges.

HILLSTROM MUST DIE.

Gov. Spry Refuses to Interfere.

Bravado of the Prisoner, on the Verge of Collapse, has Disappeared.

Firing Squad will Consist of Five Masked Men Armed with Rifles.

Many Threats of Violence are Received by the Utah Official.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SALT LAKE, Nov. 18.—A hollow mockery of the once arrogant and defiant Joseph Hillstrom, self-styled martyr, whose sentence to be executed for murder tomorrow, Gov. Spry has declined to commute or stay, although President Wilson for the second time has made a plea for the culprit, languishes in a cell at the Utah State prison tonight, a human wreck. Broken under the strain, Hillstrom wept tonight when visited by newspaper men. For a time it appeared as if a complete breakdown was imminent, but he rallied under an alcoholic stimulant.

He called upon God to witness his innocence and again declared that his vindication is coming. In words barely audible, for it was hard for Hillstrom to speak, he said: "Tomorrow at sunrise I die, a martyr to the cause which I have fought for throughout my life. I have lost all hope but when my case comes to the tragic climax it will find me no less a man than I have been all along. I reiterate that I have lived like an artist and I will die like one. I want the world to know that I did not commit the Morrison murder of which I stand convicted."

"What does my mealy life amount to anyway? I have many friends but no near relatives who will mourn my untimely death. There is no one to care what becomes of me aside from my many friends who have fought and fought hard to clear me."

The horror of existence during the last few days has plainly been more than Hillstrom can stand. He, like many another, has broken under the strain.

MANY THREATS. Meanwhile the city and State officials are preparing to repel any of the many threats made against their lives and property, by friends of Hillstrom. The State Capitol, the State University, the city and county buildings, the Utah Hotel and various buildings owned by the Mormon church are guarded heavily tonight. This action has been taken because of the many threats made to destroy these buildings. Also because of an attempt made to burn Salt Lake's newest hotel, the Newhouse.

The State prison likewise is heavily guarded. Ten extra men have been stationed along the walls at points of vantage to guard against the possible attack threatened in letters received by State officials. The Governor's house is guarded by ten deputy sheriffs. The yard is lighted with arc lamps and every precaution has been taken to prevent the execution of any of the threats on the Governor's life.

Likewise the same precautions have been taken to guard the homes of other State and prominent officials.

THREATENS GOVERNOR. Gov. Spry today received another "KOD" letter. Two of the letters have been received before and are regarded as the most serious of any of those received. The KOD, it has been determined, is a secret organization of members of the Industrial Workers of the World. It corresponds in many respects to the Mafia. Government secret service agents are now doing their utmost to trace down the identity of the leaders. The letter received today by the Governor follows: "Gov. Spry of Utah, Salt Lake City: Again in accordance with the instructions from headquarters of the KOD I impart this message to you: "Gov. Spry, remember this is the last day intervening between the date of Joe Hillstrom's murder. We know him to be innocent. Thereupon we command you on peril of your life to commute his sentence. Fail us and terrible and swift retribution will be meted out to you and yours."

"If you fail to heed this warning you will receive through the mails the Jack of Spades. This means that you are the mark for this organization. We will do you as we have done to others. (Signed) No. 7 KOD." The writer of this letter is apparently a person of some education. The handwriting while plainly disguised is very legible, and some of those who have examined it are inclined to believe it to be the writing of a woman.

Mrs. E. B. Close, Miss Adelaide Close (sitting), Miss Elinor Close (standing).

According to a statement issued by the executors of the will of C. W. Post, there is no disagreement existing between Mrs. Lella Y. Post, Mr. Post's widow, and Mrs. Marjorie Post Close, his daughter. It is also stated that Mrs. Post has been or will be cut off from participation in the estate. The statement was issued in denial of reports from Detroit that Mrs. Close would become the sole owner of the property of her father, estimated at $35,000,000, and that the widow would not share in it.

BRITISH MAY WITHDRAW FROM THE DARDANELLES.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Baron Ribblesdale said in the House of Lords today, in addressing a question to the Marquis of Lansdowne, that he understood Lieut.-Gen. Charles C. Monro, commander of the British expedition at the Dardanelles, had reported in favor of the withdrawal of the British army at the Dardanelles. The Marquis of Lansdowne announced the government asked Earl Kitchener to visit the Eastern Mediterranean because, in his opinion, the report of Sir Charles Monro was the evidence accompanying it did not seem sufficient to enable the government to come to a conclusion upon the great questions of policy involved. The announcement of the Marquis of Lansdowne was made in response to Baron Ribblesdale's question whether Gen. Monro favored the withdrawal of the British army from the Dardanelles.

BONAR LAW IS HOPEFUL DESPITE GRIM OUTLOOK.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.) (30)

LONDON, Nov. 18, 8:03 p.m.—"Two topics have been raised which are not pleasant to think or talk about, namely the position in Serbia and the Dardanelles," said Andrew Bonar Law, the Colonial Secretary, speaking on the third reading of the finance bill in the House of Commons this evening.

Mr. Bonar Law did not agree that the public should be taken into the government's confidence at the present time. With respect to Serbia, whatever criticisms there might be, he would not say a word on the subject which could not be judged unless all the facts were known, and most certainly in his judgment it would not be wise to tell all the facts. Despite what was happening in the Near East, he would say, however, that he was more hopeful than he had been for many months and looking at the tendency of the whole war, things were not going so badly as they would seem to be.

NEW RISKS INVOLVED.

Kaiser Getting Far from Home.

Egypt and Persia are the Immediate Objectives of the Teutons.

Actual Invasion of India is also Said to be in the Programme.

Campaign Takes Dangerous Turn for Both Parties to the Struggle.

(BY HARRY CARR.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 18.—The latest cables indicate that Rumania is about to join her army to that of Germany and Austria. This will be a military event of the most sweeping importance. In this war it is the little countries which have played the trump cards. I have always felt that Rumania occupies the most influential and important position that any second class power ever found itself in. The reason is geographical.

Toward the end of September, Germany started on a daring and sensational campaign. The objective was to join forces by direct contact with the Turkish army and precipitate the war into England's most vulnerable quarter—Egypt and the Persian Gulf. In undertaking this huge movement, Germany was obliged to abandon her former strong position of fighting inside a great circle. In this new advance, Germany must enter upon a risky adventure. She must, for the first time, go far from home, leaving a long supply line strung out behind her like the web of a spider.

The great peril of Germany's new campaign was that as she marched to the new battlefield, she left Rumania and Bulgaria and Serbia all looking over the fence and threatening her long line of communications. She was like a deep sea diver with these three Balkan countries holding fast to the air pipe. It was impossible to undertake the campaign without disposing of them. So she coaxed Bulgaria to come in and chased Serbia out of the way. But Rumania still remains. And Rumania offers the greatest peril of all. From where she sits in her mountain fastness, she could swoop down upon Germany's line of communication at any time after the Germans had reached on through to Turkey. Worse than this, she could open the way for the Russians to advance like a thunderbolt into Austria and Galicia.

Truly Rumania held the trump cards. In August the Germans feared that Rumania had decided to join the allies. I remember that one of our party on the trip through South Germany was a brilliant young Rumanian journalist. One day in Munich he received a telegram which he showed me. It was from his people at home. It said: "Leave at once for Copenhagen before it is too late." The message was plain enough. Rumania expected to go to war against Germany and his people were afraid he would be interned.

Somehow the crisis passed. When I left Germany I was told that Germany intended to force Rumania to a showdown. Serbia was to be attacked first. The Bulgarians were to be mobilized on one side of Rumania, the Germans on the other. She was then to be given forty-eight hours to decide what she would do. The latest cable dispatches state that Rumania has forty-eight hours in which to decide.

As an active belligerent Rumania occupies a position of great advantage to Germany. She protects the line of communications from a Russian invasion from the north. She would be on the flank of any attempt of Russia to repeat the Galician raids of last year. The Rumanian army is one of the best maintained by any second class power.

Like the Bulgarian, it was trained by French officers. In the battle between the Bulgarians and the French invaders, the French are fighting their former pupils. It has often been supposed that this is what the British meant by accusing Bulgaria of treachery in joining the Germans. The "treachery" consists really of something that is secret history.

The Turks claim that on the eve of the Balkan war they were asked by England to call off the hostilities. They say they had the word of the British Foreign Office that the Bulgarians would not be allowed to begin war if the Turks would demobilize their troops. So the Turks sent their soldiers away down into Arabia, leaving only a few untrained recruits on the Balkan border. When the Turkish soldiers were beyond recall, Bulgaria was allowed to burst into war. Of course Turkey with such a handicap was defeated. In these circumstances, England feels that she has been double-crossed by an ungrateful Bulgaria, even as she double-crossed the Turks.

The allies are desperately anxious to break up the German advance in the Balkans rather than meet it in Persia or the Suez later on. England's

Mutiny of Natives in India

German Machinations Al-

Troops are Tamed with Fear of the British.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Mail advice reaching Washington today from India told of the execution of twenty-four Hindus and the sentence of twenty-seven others to servitude for life by a governmental commission at Lahore, and described activities against the British government among certain elements in the Indian population as more extensive than has been officially admitted.

According to the reports the La-hore affair was only one of several others that recently have been brought to an issue in India with similar results, all the prosecutions being based upon charges of anarchy, mutiny and insubordination. The native press, while speaking of the loyalty with which India responded to the call by the British government upon the natives for military service, also has referred in terms of condemnation to the activities of the disaffected elements in the population, which in some quarters are ascribed to German machinations.

The general tendency, however, is to credit the mutinying element to the work of a band of conspirators alleged to have been located on the Pacific slope of America for several years and actively engaged in secret propaganda. These conspirators are declared to have dispatched emissaries to India who have been stirring up antagonism to the British rule there.

The most disquieting feature of the situation, according to the reports is the uncertainty of the extent to which the native troops have been tamed with. In the Punjab and in Bengal, between the middle of June and the middle of September, seventeen Indian cavalrymen were sentenced to death for mutiny, machine gunning and cutting telegraph wires and seventy-one others were convicted of similar offenses.

ESCAPED GERMAN

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Nov. 18.—A German naval lieutenant from the German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich who broke his parole at Newport News, is now in the hands of the British naval authorities, according to information gleaned here today.

Two officers of the German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, Lieut. Koch and Dr. Klein, were disappeared from the vessel at Newport News, where she is interned, on October 17. Later two others disappeared.

At the time the vessel was interned,
on April 7, the officers of the cruiser gave their parole to the United States government, agreeing not to leave American soil.

Naval officials are so disturbed over the continuing rumors that they have considered putting the German seamen ashore in a guarded camp and recently asked the State Department if the marine guard had a right to fire to prevent escape.

French, British and Serbian troops, and the whole military policy in the

What the veiled threats made to-keep order and handle the traffic, which was blocked by the crowd which

Although a demonstration was ex-

There is some uncertainty as to the Serbians' line of retreat. Some dis-

retreating on Ochrida, on the South-

Declares Vessel Fired upon

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—While the United States probably will make no diplomatic inquiry of Aus-

the question of submarine warfare pending the receipt of the Austrian reply concerning the attack from the Officially qualified their statement somewhat by stating that if a vessel was destroyed within a few miles of the American coast, it would be regarded as a place of safety within the meaning of the term as used in international law.

In its correspondence with Germany
over the Frye case, the American government expressed the view that open boats did not constitute a place of safety. This was based upon the fact that an official interpretation to apply to all American citizens whether traveling on belligerent or neutral ships.

Secretary Lansing is of the opinion that the right of visit and search can be carried out by a submarine without active resistance, and that the destruction of a vessel would be a measure to prove the nationality of a vessel.

The German government since the early days of the war has demonstrated that a submarine can determine the nationality of a vessel without the placing members of its crew aboard.

Mrs. Grell's statement of the color of the flag flown by the submarine was also a means of raising the submarine was flying the naval

GERMAN COTTON
SUPPLY IS AMPLE.

(BY WIRELESS AND A. P.)

BERLIN, Nov. 18, (via Sayville).—
Germany not only has all the cotton needed for military purposes for several years, but her fields of supply are now open to her, says the Overseas News Agency today. Prevention of cotton exports to Switzerland on the contention that it was a neutral would find its way to Germany and be used for making explosives will hurt
the neutral nation, but will not harm Germany, it declares in commenting on Swiss reports that the Entente powers have stopped cotton shipments for Swiss mills.

Gov. Spry's Telegram
TO PRESIDENT WILSON.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

"Unwarranted," Says the Utah Executive of the Request from the White House to Postpone the Execution of Hillstrom—Death Watch is Placed at the Cell
of the Condemned Man.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SALT LAKE (Utah) Nov. 18.—Asserting his belief that a further postponement of the execution of Joseph Hillstrom would be an unwarranted interference with the course of justice, Gov. William Spry telegraphed to President Wilson this afternoon that he cannot and will not lend himself to a campaign to delay the execution of Hillstrom.

The Governor's telegram was in response to a request yesterday from the State Department for a recommendation of the case of Hillstrom, who was convicted of the murder of J. G.
Morrison, a Salt Lake grocer, and Morrison's son, January 16, 1914. The President's message was received by the Governor after resolutions adopted by the convention of the American Federation of Labor, that the majority were of the opinion that Hillstrom was but the victim of men higher up in the fraternity.

When informed of the decision of
Gov. Spry that he had interfered President Wilson that he could not interfere a damper was put on the gathering.

Dr. Siphier Detects Spectrographi-cally, Rotation in the Great Andromeda Nebula.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Prof. Percival Lowell of the Lowell Observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz., announced today that Dr. V. M. Siphier of the Lowell Observatory had detected spectrographi-cally rotation in the great andromeda nebula, the most striking example in the heavens of the white nebulae.

To accomplish this the exposure had to be continuous over several nights.
It was stated by Prof. Lowell that this had never been done before.

Council of Paris.

grows more serious. The Austro-German armies with the Bulgarians on their left are pushing southward, driving the smaller Serbian forces before them, while in the south the Bulgarians, reinforced by men and guns from Von Gallwitz's army are pressing on toward Monastir, from which town they are said to be only a few hours' march.

There is some uncertainty as to the Serbians' line of retreat. Some dispatches say they are falling back on Monastir, where there are British informations; others that they are retreating on Ochrida, on the Southeast Albanian frontier.

The French have indicated a serious defeat on the Bulgarians on the Vardar River, and it is unofficially reported that the British have had a success on the Valandovo front.

The big guns are continuing their lively bombardment in the west while in the east there has been no change.

Myron T. Herrick Says the War Saved Their Faces.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—It was said by commission men today that Thanksgiving turkey will retail at 27 to 28 cents a pound this season, or about 15 per cent higher than last year. The heavy rains which marked the spring and summer are said to lie at the bottom of the advance.

Declares Disaster is Sure if Tariff is not Elevated.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Myron T.
Herrick, former Ambassador to France, made two addresses here today. At a luncheon at the Hamilton Club he told members of that Republican organization that the Progressives were back in the fold. At a banquet of the Chicago Industrial Club tonight he discussed the tariff
as a great political problem.

"We are living at a moment of transient industrial prosperity, based on the abnormal conditions of wartime," said Mr. Herrick. "But the haunting remembrance of conditions as they existed for months before the war, and the certain knowledge that as they were then they will be again with the coming of peace unless steps are taken in prevention, makes the tariff question one of paramount importance to us now."

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT.

"The increase in revenue which is apparently necessary if our new defense measures are to be rightly financed, the fact that the beet and cane sugar industry of our country is facing ruin when the reduction of tariffs is effected, and the desirability of retaining the dye-making business which is being developed or can be developed in this country—these are other important reasons which should demand immediate action."

"Men of all parties are free to admit that the present tariff measure has failed to accomplish what was hoped for it, not only as a protective measure, but as a source of revenue.
And, most important of all, it leads directly to a repetition of the disaster of 1893, from which we have been saved thus far only by the indirect results of the war."

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—It is not only in fairy tale illustrations that dogs wear spectacles. They do it in real life now, according to Charles F. Cline, United States District Attorney here.

A woman purchased, through an advertisement, some spectacles for her dog, and now comes to me with a complaint that the glasses were not as advertised," said Mr. Cline today.

"I might have said that the dog other day I called on my oculist and was astonished to find him fitting lenses to a high-bred dog. He told me that many dogs of high breeding are taken out in automobiles have spectacles."

USE OF NAME IN NEBRASKA
PRIMARY IS OPTIONAL.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The placing of the name of Associate Justice Hughes on the ballot at the coming Presidential primaries as a candidate for the nomination of President will rest with the decision of Secretary of State Pool. Secretary Pool in a message to Justice Hughes's secretary today stated that he department reserves the right to make such ruling. The name placed on the ballot of the State as appears to be within his province, but the personal wishes of Justice Hughes will receive most careful consideration.

The name placed on the ballot of the

REQUEST OF HUGHES.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Associate Justice Hughes today notified the Secretary of State of Nebraska he would not be a candidate at the coming Presidential primary election and requested that his name be not placed upon the ballot.

The formal declaration of Justice Hughes to which he took oath before a notary and which was telegraphed to the Secretary of State at Lincoln, was as follows:

"A petition having been filed with you on November 13, 1915, requesting that my name be placed on the official primary ballot of the Republican primary for the primary election to be held in Nebraska on April 18, 1916, I hereby decline to be placed on the ballot of the primary election. I hereby notify you that I decline the nomination made by this petition or similar petition and request that my name shall not be placed upon the ballot for any primary election."

There are differences of opinion in political circles here as to the technical effect of the declaration. The Attorney-General of Nebraska has been quoted as saying Justice Hughes could not withdraw his name from the primary ticket. On the other hand, Nebraskans in Washington contend there is no question as to his right to withdraw.

The difference arises over the point of whether the declination privilege incorporated in the primary election law of Nebraska applies to the Presidential preference primary.

It is not believed that the courts
will be asked to review the interpretation of the local law.

The nominating petition stated that Justice Hughes's name was filed absolutely without his knowledge, and that while the petitioners were aware he was opposed to any consideration of his name as a candidate, they were convinced "that the emergency demands a resort to conscription."

Schools Unhealthy?
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 18.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I notice that one of the new school buildings at Los Angeles is built with semi-basements which are to be used for classroom purposes as well as toilets. This seems to me to be a carrying economy a little too far. It is an economy at the expense of our children's health for surely no one can deny the fact that these basements are unhealthy. They are con-damp and not only get the dust dampness from the playground

the impure air from adjoining to think this is a matter that should be decided by the mothers' club in the city. Surely enough money is expended upon our school buildings to insure our children an education "above ground."

On Military Training.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—[To the Editor of the Times:] As this subject is being so fully discussed theoretically by people with best intentions both pro and con, I would ask permission to kindly publish this article of my actual experience in this matter in high schools. My work has been for many years in the high schools and colleges in the States of California and West Virginia.

MOVEMENTS IN SOCIETY.

THE Church of the Angels, nestled close to the arroyo and one of the interesting, picturesque spots of the Southland, was at early sunset last evening the scene of a pretty marriage which gave to James Roby Maloney of San Francisco a fair Los Angeles bride—Miss Edith Holder, the charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Holder of No. 1151 West Thirty-seventh place.

The ceremony, solemnized at 4 o'clock in an assemblage of many friends, was performed by Rev. Harry Thompson, rector of the Garvanza church, amid a wealth of gorgeous pink chrysanthemums banked at the altar and channel. Leland Cutler of San Francisco was best man, and Dr. Hermon Wilson, also of the northern city, and Carl L. Hubbell of Los Angeles, were the officiating ministers. A delightful young lady of Fresno, the bride's maid, wore a dress of pink, the counterpart of Miss Edith Holder's, who was maid of honor for her sister, only differing in tone, a baby blue, made with full, frilled overskirts with scalloped borders, caught in silver flower clusters and small pointed bodices strapped with tiny rosebuds. The bridesmaids wore silk net tunics and tulle. They carried garlands of Cecile Brunner roses and forget-me-nots.

The bride was lovely in her nuptial creation of white crepe de Chine and rose point lace—the same which had enriched her mother's wedding dress—and trimmed in pearls. Her long tulle veil was also the same worn by her maternal parent, caught in orange blossoms and pearls in the collar, and she carried a handsome bouquet of the valley and tulle. Her flowers were of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

An elaborate bridal supper was served at the Alexandria, the happy young couple leaving later for their honeymoon. Los Angeles sustains a loss in this marriage, for Mr. Maloney is a business man of San Francisco and is taking this former young society girl to Berkeley, where they will be at home after the first of the year at No. 147 Parkside drive. Miss Holder—now Mrs. Maloney—was graduated from the University of California and he from Nebraska. With her family, she came from Illinois eleven years ago, and has grown to young womanhood in Los Angeles, where she has scores of friends who wish her added happiness in her new home.

For Saturday.
Miss Margaret Joyce of Arapahoe street is entertaining guests tomorrow afternoon, members of the younger set being privileged to attend.

A Luncheon of Today.
At her home, No. 333 South Gram-

For Early December.
Mrs. Martha Duffell has issued invitations for a party which is to be an event of December 14.

A Coming Luncheon Compliment.
Pleasantly anticipated is the luncheon and auction bridge for which Mrs. Albert Mortenson has invited guests for Tuesday next. It will be given at the hostess' pretty home, No. 833 South Lake street.

At the Beach.
Angelenos who recently spent a few days at Long Beach as guests of the Virginia Indians in compliment to Drake, Mrs. Paul Rowan, Frederick Wheeler, H. Neil Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Williams, Richard Sidney Cooper, Allen Jones, Kate Harkness, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Rose, A. P. Warrington and Mrs. E. Holliday.

Prenuptials for Miss Mahan.
Mrs. Frank Traak of Echo street, Highland Park, is giving a pre-nuptial reception in compliment to her daughter, Marcella Margaret Mahan and her fiancé, Pascal Henry Burke, who are to be married the last of this month. Others bidden are Mrs. Clark Rose Mahan and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Bennett, parents of the happy betrothed pair.

Since the engagement was announced this popular bride-elect has been the recipient of many showers and entertainments which are making her days most gay. But she has canceled all offers for next week, that she may prepare for the church wedding. The rehearsal will be held on the evening previous, and Mr. Burke is giving a dinner at the Athletic Club at 6 o'clock.

Auction Bridge Luncheon.
Among the happy affairs occupying an important place on society's calendar is the luncheon followed by auction bridge, which Miss Florence Howard gave Tuesday at her home, No. 443 Wilshire boulevard. Covers were

A LINCOLN ANNIVERSARY.

Fifty-two years ago, on November 19, 1863, Abraham Lincoln delivered at St. Louis a brief and simple speech. Into it he condensed all the intense feeling of patriotism and all the longing for the preservation of liberty which had been awakened in him through the tremendous trials and responsibilities borne by the executive of a great nation engaged in war. Lincoln felt, as he wrote to Edward Everett on the following day, that his speech was a failure, but it has lived as one of the greatest definitions of the principle underlying the establishment of these United States.

No other western nation, and but two on the older continent, can look back upon so long an uninterrupted record as a nation as the United States. No other stands today so firmly for endurance and permanence. The citizen of the United States today has not merely that responsibility to preserve freedom bequeathed to him from the past, but as well that of a more insistent call for the clear outlook over the world's troubled waters of the future.

It is worth while, therefore, to recall today what Lincoln said just fifty-two years ago about the permanence of American principles: "Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal."

"Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this."

"But, in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow—this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

TOGETHER LET US GO

Downtown to inspect Olive Gray and Other Esquisite Tints; also Things Chic and Charming.

Now is the time to buy: Sugar, both granulated and confectioners', for the Christmas candies. Sugar is going up in price and bids fair to be much higher before the holidays. Now is the time to save money by stocking up with this commodity.

Engage the Christmas as well as the Thanksgiving turkey. Turkeys are better and cheaper than usual and yet there is no certainty that they will not go up in price at the last moment.

Begin planning for the Thanksgiving centerpiece of fruits. A big basket filled to overflowing adds the right note to the Thanksgiving dinner table. Pomegranates, Japanese persimmons and one of those shining black alligator pears from a good nucleus for the many ordinary fruits such as apples, oranges, bananas and grapes.

Practical Suggestion.
Cranberry jelly for the Thanksgiving feast is best made as follows: Wash one quart of cranberries and put on to cook with just enough water to prevent scorching. When soft, mash through a sieve and add to the juice of one lemon. When almost boiling, add equal quantity of sugar, stirring constantly. When the mixture reaches the boiling point, remove from the fire, place in moulds and set away until wanted.

Thanksgiving Tables.
The windows of that big house-furnishing store on mid-Broadway present a most inviting spectacle. In one is set a festive breakfast, the dishes being of white porcelain, and in another a table of garden spots and delightful woodsy places. The table of red-craft and the other settings in charming and delicate and greatly to the poetic allure. Especially noticeable is the china closet of red-craft, the first article of the kind seen.

For the Groom.
The first table to greet the eye is the table for the groom. The table fulfills his promise in the table wisdom distilled from the setting here. "Just how" is the theme of the ample and original expression in this table with its colored lanterns and its steins, its odd, dainty favors, and its glassware. The table is a celebration of the dowry of a celebratory brother.

The Bride's Table.
Much more demure, of course, and set well away from the public gaze is the table for the bride. This is as should be, all in white save for the touches of greenery which add life and Chaste elegance and daintiness is the chief characteristic here.

A Room Full.
There is an entire room devoted to different ways of setting tables, all novel, correct and having to draw from the entire stock of that large store, without saying, lavish and beautiful.

It is in this great room, made cozy by the presence of several charming girls and presided over by the sunshine lady, who was likened by one visitor to a dainty angel, who has served every afternoon, from now until Thanksgiving. The "just how" of tea-making as well as how to serve it, is presented here. The table is an education in correct table setting and service. One lovely Dresden table is for luncheon. The dishes are real Dresden, and the room thereon are of the Cecile Brunner variety so dear to Californians. Another table is set with an exquisite game service and a fine table set with new black and white china which is so popular. Upon each dish there is a lovely floral medallion and at each place a mock ice cream form so real that—wasn't it a joke!—someone stole one and carried it away to eat! Complimentary to that big grocery store which devised this so-elegant imitation was it not?

WOMEN'S WORK. WOMEN'S CLUBS.

The organ recital to have been given at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral by the Schubert Club this afternoon has been postponed to a later date soon to be announced. The change is made out of respect to Mrs. Carroll Bradford Smith, under whose supervision the event was being presented. Mr. Smith's death occurred a few days ago.

Travel Club Today.
This afternoon in their clubroom at No. 302 Trinity Auditorium, the Los Angeles Travel Club's program will be devoted to "New England Day." The executive board meeting is called for 1 o'clock, the hour preceding the general program.

Prominent Clubwoman Guest Here.
Mrs. Charles P. Squires of Los Angeles, Nev. president of the Nevada Federation of Women's Clubs, is at the Angelus. Mrs. Squires was formerly a resident of Los Angeles and a member of the Friday Morning Club. She has been attending the eighth annual meeting of the Nevada Federation and has also visited the exposition in San Francisco. She reports women of her State particularly interested in civics—having recently been granted suffrage, they are anxious to use it intelligently.

Emergency Club Today.
Wilshire Emergency Club will entertain at the Burlington Apartments this afternoon with the fourth party of the tournament series. Auction bridge and Five Hundred will be played. Mrs. Paul Rider is to be hostess, assisted by Mrs. Francis Earl Brown, Mrs. Charles F. Kincaid, Mrs. N. D. White, Mrs. Perkins Trantum, Mrs. Clifton Baker and Mrs. Ira S. Chapman. These parties are well known to the public, having been held for the past four years for the purpose of raising funds to dispense in worthy charity, with money, clothing or scholarships, whatever the case may be. Mrs. Henry Farnsworth was the first president, with Mrs. Peter McClelland, Mrs. Paul Rider and Mrs. Charles F. Kincaid in succession until the present year, when Mrs. Chapman was elected. The organization was originally the Wilshire branch of the Sunning Club, having substituted emergency to better explain its object.

Lorena F.T.A.
The Lorena Parent-Teacher Association will hold a reception to the teachers in the school building this evening. Boys of the Boyle Heights Intermediate Club under the supervision of Miss Violet Phares; the orchestra conducted by Mr. Housekeeper; Miss Vackerman, who accompanied Miss Foster; Miss and Master Rivers in violin and piano solos and several speakers are to appear on the program and to perform. All are cordially invited.

Monrovia Woman's Club.
The regular section day for the Woman's Club of Monrovia was held a week ago yesterday, and increased memberships in all the sections indicate that the work is interesting the club women of that city. The first section, in book and drama, under the auspices of Mrs. Porter H. Carter, continued the study of the play "Ghosts," with papers on various phases of Norwegian life. In the art appreciation section, led by Mrs. Edward Scott, the Italian and Flemish schools were compared, several painters being compared, among them Cimabue and Giotto, Fra Angelico and Jan van Eyck, Botticelli and Memling.

Miss Luella Keller, who is attracting attention in the musical circles of Southern California, both as a composer and pianist, has charge of the music criticism. Wednesday afternoon's class was devoted to a review of the Beethoven sonatas and a preliminary discussion of the Liszt.

Charm.
Such a pungent, dainty and yet lasting odor is that lilas which bears a name similar to its forename and which you will never forget, either the odor or the name, once you have known them. This alluring fragrance comes in a tall, tall bottle and there are a flock of smaller bottles, its escort, for a smaller price than the big brother, or sister, rather, for anything so sweet as this should be femininely named. Among the Christmas gifts, a bottle of this charming perfume would not come amiss.

Shimmering Satin.
Have you ever seen anything so lovely as the new satin lingerie? Washable, of course, and yet so beautiful that one forgets to ask as to practicality, thinking only of its beauty. In the soft flesh tint so popular for lingerie, this plant material is delightful. The garments are, as a rule, made of real satin, the quality of the goods precluding the necessity of trimming. Any girl or woman who is simply irresistible in garments of this silky softness. Frilly as we thought crepe de chine, it must resign in favor of the newer fabric.

Bath Scales.
If you are striving to reduce and are in the habit of scanning scales, you will welcome the arrival of those bathroom ones, which have a way of weighing you while in the bathtub. I mean so that your clothing will not mortify you by adding to your avoirdupois. These scales look up directly in the face and tell just how much you weigh; but since it is in the privacy of your own bathroom, you do not mind. You see there is a mirror in which you see your weight. The face of the scale is reflected and while you stand, you look downward and behold your figure—your weight fate I mean! The scales are dainty and white enameled and will not be out of place in the most dainty bathroom. Moreover, they are made in Los Angeles and their scales are dainty and fully tested.

Fashion's Remarks.
A touch of embroidery on the ends of the cash will give a point of interest, easily acquired. Handbags are many and varied, but for general use the one of leather is always best. There is nothing prettier for winter sports wear than white wool sweater with cap to match. There are delightful low shoes made without buckles or trimming of any kind and to be worn with spots.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.
The organ recital to have been given at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral by the Schubert Club this afternoon has been postponed to a later date soon to be announced. The change is made out of respect to Mrs. Carroll Bradford Smith, under whose supervision the event was being presented. Mr. Smith's death occurred a few days ago.

These parties are well known to the public, having been held for the past four years for the purpose of raising funds to dispense in worthy charity, with money, clothing or scholarships, whatever the case may be. Mrs. Henry Farnsworth was the first president, with Mrs. Peter McClelland, Mrs. Paul Rider and Mrs. Charles F. Kincaid in succession until the present year, when Mrs. Chapman was elected. The organization was originally the Wilshire branch of the Sunning Club, having substituted emergency to better explain its object.

Lorena F.T.A.
The Lorena Parent-Teacher Association will hold a reception to the teachers in the school building this evening. Boys of the Boyle Heights Intermediate Club under the supervision of Miss Violet Phares; the orchestra conducted by Mr. Housekeeper; Miss Vackerman, who accompanied Miss Foster; Miss and Master Rivers in violin and piano solos and several speakers are to appear on the program and to perform. All are cordially invited.

Monrovia Woman's Club.
The regular section day for the Woman's Club of Monrovia was held a week ago yesterday, and increased memberships in all the sections indicate that the work is interesting the club women of that city. The first section, in book and drama, under the auspices of Mrs. Porter H. Carter, continued the study of the play "Ghosts," with papers on various phases of Norwegian life. In the art appreciation section, led by Mrs. Edward Scott, the Italian and Flemish schools were compared, several painters being compared, among them Cimabue and Giotto, Fra Angelico and Jan van Eyck, Botticelli and Memling.

Miss Luella Keller, who is attracting attention in the musical circles of Southern California, both as a composer and pianist, has charge of the music criticism. Wednesday afternoon's class was devoted to a review of the Beethoven sonatas and a preliminary discussion of the Liszt.

Charm.
Such a pungent, dainty and yet lasting odor is that lilas which bears a name similar to its forename and which you will never forget, either the odor or the name, once you have known them. This alluring fragrance comes in a tall, tall bottle and there are a flock of smaller bottles, its escort, for a smaller price than the big brother, or sister, rather, for anything so sweet as this should be femininely named. Among the Christmas gifts, a bottle of this charming perfume would not come amiss.

Shimmering Satin.
Have you ever seen anything so lovely as the new satin lingerie? Washable, of course, and yet so beautiful that one forgets to ask as to practicality, thinking only of its beauty. In the soft flesh tint so popular for lingerie, this plant material is delightful. The garments are, as a rule, made of real satin, the quality of the goods precluding the necessity of trimming. Any girl or woman who is simply irresistible in garments of this silky softness. Frilly as we thought crepe de chine, it must resign in favor of the newer fabric.

Bath Scales.
If you are striving to reduce and are in the habit of scanning scales, you will welcome the arrival of those bathroom ones, which have a way of weighing you while in the bathtub. I mean so that your clothing will not mortify you by adding to your avoirdupois. These scales look up directly in the face and tell just how much you weigh; but since it is in the privacy of your own bathroom, you do not mind. You see there is a mirror in which you see your weight. The face of the scale is reflected and while you stand, you look downward and behold your figure—your weight fate I mean! The scales are dainty and white enameled and will not be out of place in the most dainty bathroom. Moreover, they are made in Los Angeles and their scales are dainty and fully tested.

Fashion's Remarks.
A touch of embroidery on the ends of the cash will give a point of interest, easily acquired. Handbags are many and varied, but for general use the one of leather is always best. There is nothing prettier for winter sports wear than white wool sweater with cap to match. There are delightful low shoes made without buckles or trimming of any kind and to be worn with spots.

Utah Players to Hurl Two Sets of Plunging Backs Against the Method

ALTITUDE MAY BEAT TROJANS.Salt Lake's Thin Air Hard
on Coast Men.Utah is Rank in and Out
this Season.Two Backfields may Wear Out U.S.C.

BY BERT WIRE—SALT LAKE DISPATCH.
SALT LAKE, Nov. 18.—Football supporters of this neck of the woods are entirely at sea in their efforts to figure out the probable outcome of next Saturday's game here between the University of Southern California and Utah. There is practically nothing on which they can base their calculations as neither team has met an opponent which has played both of the elements that the other has played with.

In Utah, Southern California is meeting an eleven which may prove a very good one, and also it may be a stumbling block. Utah started out with a brilliant outlook in the Rocky Mountain Conference battle for the title but it was unfortunate in that it was defeated by the very strongest team in the conference, the Colorado Aggies, conference champions, in its very first game. Its title hopes were therefore blasted before the season was well under way.

Since that defeat Utah has played an indifferent game, showing remarkable class at times and at others lameness.

Coach "Norris" Rogers, of California University, has been drilling his squad as never before this season, for Saturday's encounter, and while the local aggregation scarcely knows what to expect when it meets Southern California, it is really looking for a victory.

Utah has a fair line with two rattling good backfields, one that is light but very fast and another that has ample beef and line-plunging ability. "Tiger" is usually the backfield star of the eleven and probably the best open-field runner in the conference. In Romney and Darrell Gardner he has two great running mates. Brecken, Mark Gardner and Hyster are the stars of the "plungers," as Coach Rogers terms this set of backs. Ward may not be able to go through the entire game Saturday, but while he lasts, he will be the man for Southern California to watch.

GOOD KICKERS.
Utah is also well fortified with kickers. Capt. McIntyre is generally conceded to be the strongest and most consistent kicker in Utah and Colorado, and Romney is easily the best drop-kicker the Crimson has ever had.

Norris's one weakness so far this season has been his inexperienced line and it was through this weakness that the Colorado Aggies showed their way to victory. This is a football team, as it stands today, is exceptionally strong on offense, having mastered both the overhead and college game to a state of perfection that has pleased the coaches.

ALTITUDE.
Southern California will come here with the same handicap that has confronted every Coast team which has ever played here—altitude. Coming from a low to an extremely high altitude does not usually affect baseball teams to any great extent but it always plays havoc with a football aggregation, especially after the first half. Utah has the experience of which it has had with Occidental on two occasions, in mind and will therefore probably have its real attack until the second half, when it is likely to be in a position to defend in the early stages. It remains to be seen though whether or not the altitude will affect Southern California as it did Occidental.

CIATION.

Former track and field coach Boyd Comstock of U.S.C., will occupy a similar position with the University of Pennsylvania if the word of a prominent alumnus of that institution is authentic.

The Penn Alumni Club of Los Angeles is working hard to get Comstock this job. It is thought that the Quaker failure to track during the past several seasons has been due to poor coaching.

OFFERS HAVE NOT BEEN ACCEPTED.MCCREDIE WILL NOT CONSIDER SELLING OR TRADING
BATES.

Offers which the Vernon club made to Portland for Bates and Stumpf some time ago have not yet been accepted. McCredie, it is said, will not consider trading or selling Bates. He might consent to part with Stumpf, if in fact, he has not already done so. Stumpf stated before leaving for the East that he probably would be with the Federal next season. Had it been possible to secure Bates, Pat would have converted him into a second baseman.

B. M. Pharris.

The tall, thin heavyweight of the L.A.A.C. who is counted on to bring the honors in the draught division to the local club.

FIGHTERS ARE ON EDGE FOR TOURNAMENT OPENING.

BOXERS who will take part in the Pacific Coast Amateur championship bouts at the Los Angeles Athletic Club this evening went through light work-out yesterday afternoon.

There were more than twenty boxers working out in the L.A.A.C. gymnasium yesterday. Although none of them worked out long their work was snappy.

Cliff Jordan and B. M. Pharris worked out together. They went to it hammer and tongs. Pharris had a cut under his eye while Jordan's nose was bleeding. De Witt Van Court then stepped in and told the boys they had had enough.

George Towle announces that the boys can weigh in any time after 5 o'clock at the athletic club. A committee of club members, consisting of Al Best, Jay Walton and George Adair, will handle the boys at the scales.

The timers are Bill Loftus, George Dameron and William Weber. George Blake will referee the bouts while the two judges will be H. M. Walker and Fane Norton. Guy Wampus Finney will do the announcing.

For a time there was a famine in the 175-pound class. There were only two entrants in that division. Noble Starr, the boxer who expects to make the name of the Pasadena A. C. famous in the annals of boxing, and a beer truck driver for the Malar brewery, while Daly is a San Pedro longshoreman. Each of them tips the beam at 210 pounds. Thompson called around last night, removed his coat, rolled up his sleeve and exposed an arm about the size of the average guy's leg, and it was all muscle. Daly is said to carry the same kind of an arm inside his sleeve.

In the main event, Sailor Michaels of the U. S. submarine H3 will hook up with Danny Howard at 180 pounds. Michaels has fought six fights here and won them. He is a protégé of Tom Sharkey. By way of introducing Michaels, Sharkey wrote Bill Huddy a letter.

It was a regular Sharkey letter, and consisted of one sentence: "This guy sure can fight." On the strength of this, Huddy gave him a bout and has been using him regularly since. Now-

OLD GAME IS

Surprises.St. Mary's Finds Fall Very Successful One.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.
Nov. 17.—Now that the football season is about done in the north, a retrospective survey of the season comes as the natural thing. For California it has been an extraordinary season in every way, beginning with the breaking of long-standing athletic agreements and terminating with the resignation of the coach.

St. Mary's College, the only other institution of size about the bay which has played American football, has found the season very successful. Some discussion was manifested over the change to the American game at first, but as soon as a couple of games were played and the students saw the possibilities they took hold. American football is at St. Mary's to stay. Incidentally, this has been the most successful season financially that St. Mary's has seen since the dropped relations with Santa Clara.

CALIFORNIA CONDITIONS.
When the break with Stanford came last summer, California was in a precarious financial position. A debt of some $20,000 for the new truck hung over the student body, while numerous other expenses were in sight. In addition to the debt, the management faced a situation that was unusual in another way. There was no competition.

EARLY GAMER.
As exhibitions of American football the early games were hardly hits. The Farquhar was learning principles, and after the brilliant open Rugby work the heavy line plunging seemed a bit dull. After the U. S. C. game, rosters began to understand American football better, and so did the team.

THE BUBBLES BURST.
Whatever suspicious things the crystal-gazers among the rosters saw before the Washington game, they could not but feel after the game that their crystal had been nothing but a bubble and had burst with bubble-like suddenness.

Methodists. Mr. Wad Also Has a Relapse of His "Spring Fever" By Gale and Others.

Baseball Chapter. HAM TELLS HOW MAIER APPOINTED HIM MANAGER.

By Harry A. Williams. Ham, Failure in Western League, is Star in Coast All Because He Gets Control—Angels may Find in Elinore—Tigers to go to Santa Susana for First Week's Work.

Nothing in the history of the Coast League ever caused more surprise than the release of Ham, who was appointed manager of the Elinore team. The release was a surprise because Ham had been a failure in the Western League. The release was a surprise because Ham had been a failure in the Western League. The release was a surprise because Ham had been a failure in the Western League.

Ham Patterson, who was more surprised than you were when he became Tiger boss. On the Job. BUSY AGAIN AFTER TRIP. POLY HAS CHIEF DUTY REALITY WORRIED.

Coach Featherstone says that he fears the Mechanics more than he does Manual Arts—Team Practices for First Time Since Northern Invasion. The Los Angeles High School eleven has begun to practice in earnest for the Polytechnic game next Wednesday afternoon.

Spring Training. Spring training will start a week or more later than usual. It having been agreed by the managers that three weeks is sufficient agony. In fact, as the season does not start until April 4, next year, the teams won't get down to the grind of regular training until about March 12.

To Wichita. Bill Malarkey, who still adheres to the original principle of throwing a curve ball with his thumb, expects to get back into the game next season. Malarkey twirled his back while pitching for Oakland last season, and was forced to retire temporarily. The injury was not permanent, and he has shown so much in the sandlot games that Patterson has accepted his terms to play with Wichita next season.

SEEMS THAT GAME IS CALLED OFF. SANTA MONICA AND LINCOLN PROBABLY WILL NOT PLAY. Indications point to the calling off of the football contest scheduled between Santa Monica and Lincoln High schools. It seems that there was some sort of a wrangle over the arrangements and that a conference between Principal Woods and Coach Shutt of the beach city and Coach Foley of Lincoln failed to clear matters up.

FACULTY FOOTBALL TEAM BEATS MANUAL SENIORS.

The biggest comedy football stunt ever seen at Manual Arts was pulled off yesterday afternoon when the Faculty eleven won their annual football contest with the Senior A team by a 9 to 7 score. The 1500 spectators not only saw some real old-time American football but were kept in a state of hysterics by the antics of their faculty team. Ole Ohlsen, a 275-pound husky playing right guard for the teachers, was the main center of attraction. Coach Fritch had a hard time looking up a pair of football pants that would allow the big fellow to crawl into them, but finally found a pair that looked as though they had come from the Baker Iron Works.

L.A.A.C. TEAMS TAKE BEATINGS.

The Los Angeles Athletic Club suffered two basketball defeats last night at the hands of the athletes from Orange. The heavyweights were beaten 28 to 22 and the lightweights 19 to 13. The stars of the game between the huskies were little "Red" Wilson who is not a husky, and Hogan, who tore up into space six feet and seven inches. Wilson played a forward for the club and shot five of the baskets. Hogan played center for the Orange crew and somehow managed to get the ball every jump.

BEEES GET OLD JOBS.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 18.—Evidently believing that one good turn deserves another, about four hundred stockholders in the Salt Lake Club of the Pacific Coast League held a meeting this afternoon and re-elected the old board of directors for another year. The re-elected officers are: Frank A. Murphy, president; M. R. Evans, vice-president; Lawrence Green, secretary, and Rodney T. Badger, treasurer. The above named officers, together with the following, constitute the board of directors: Rev. Elmer I. Goshen, George F. Wason, George O. Self and H. W. Lane.

RAMONA ACRES OPPOSES ODOR.

MASS MEETING CALLED TO PROTEST AGAINST SEWER FARM.
[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
RAMONA ACRES, Nov. 18.—A mass meeting of Ramona Acres residents will be held this evening to protest against establishing the tricity sewer farm in that vicinity. The residents say that the odor from the sewerage farm will be objectionable to them and will tend to keep away those who would contemplate making homes there.

ALHAMBRA. ROBBERS MAKE JAP OPEN SAFE.

FIRST TIE CLERK, THEN PUT GUN TO OWNER'S HEAD.
Alhambra Grocery Store Ripped by Men Who Leave Gun's Photo as Clue. Mexican Shot at Spy, Says Letter to Brother-Sworn at Fly Breaks Arm.
[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
ALHAMBRA, Nov. 18.—A cheap postal photo of a comely girl is the only clue left by three masked robbers who took $200 from the safe of the Japanese Grocery at Mission road and San Gabriel boulevard, at 4 o'clock this morning. One employee of the grocery was tied hand and foot and left in the yard, while the other was forced to open the store safe at the point of a gun.

I. Uski, a clerk at the store, heard a suspicious noise and started to investigate. He was met at the back door of the building by three masked men who gagged and tied him. He, Isacki, the proprietor of the place, heard the shouting between the robbers and clerk and started a hunt for his revolver. Before securing the weapon the three masked men entered the room and forced Isacki to crawl back into bed.

While one of the masked men guarded the Japanese and his wife the other two ransacked the store and discovered the safe. Isacki was told to leave his bed and work the combination. The cash box contained $200 and a quantity of change and stamps. After cautioning the Japanese not to turn in an alarm the robbers left. Uski, who is a Japanese, was taken to a hospital and a telephone call brought Marshal Parker.

The Alhambra officer was assisted later in the morning in the search by El Monte and San Gabriel officers, but it is thought that the robbers escaped by boarding a passing freight train. The masks used by the men were of sack and were found later on the El Monte highway. The postal photo, evidently dropped by one of the robbers on the floor of the store, is the likeness of a pretty brunette, and gives the name of a San Francisco photo and postal card store.

SHOT AS A SPY.
Jesus Ramez, residing near Alhambra, has received word from relatives in Mexico that his brother, Felix, a former resident of San Gabriel, was shot as a spy last month by Villa soldiers. Ramez left San Gabriel several years ago, and according to letters received irregularly by his brother here, fought with the several different factions, turning at last to Carranza.

One letter was received last month from the Mexican soldier stating that Carranza was sure to straighten out the Mexican troubles. The letter telling of Ramez's death stated that he was caught within the Villa lines and shot after a brief resistance.

ENTANGLEMENTS.
There is to be a regulation for barbed-wire fences within the city limits of Alhambra. The barbed-wire question has been up before the City Council on several occasions, and at the meeting of the board last night it was decided that if certain persons in the city had to have wire fences they must be placed at least three feet back from the walks.

Cornstarch Pudding

How to Make This Old-Fashioned, but Always Popular Dessert.
One of the most favored desserts in this country for generations has been that every popular dish—Cornstarch pudding. The following simple recipe for its preparation was taken from a book compiled by an eminent authority on culinary subjects, who recommends it as the best that ever came to her attention:
Three cups scalded milk, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 6 level tablespoons Kingsford's Cornstarch, 1/2 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Mix the cornstarch with a little cold milk. Stir the hot milk slowly onto the cornstarch and stir over water till it thickens. Cook eight minutes. Beat the eggs slightly, add the sugar and salt, add the cornstarch mixture to the eggs and cook (stirring constantly) one minute longer. Remove from the fire, add the vanilla. Serve cold with cream and sugar. (Serves six persons.)
You will note that we have specified Kingsford's Cornstarch particularly in this recipe, because the cornstarch is the most important ingredient and the best results cannot possibly be obtained with inferior brands. Kingsford's can be obtained at all modern grocers. Also ask for the Corn Products cook book containing the above and hundreds of other valuable recipes.

AGREEMENT REACHED ON IMPERIAL WATER.

EL CENTRO, Nov. 18.—A tentative agreement between agents of the Imperial district and New Liver-pool Salt Works, major creditors of the insolvent California Development Company, has been reached, and the five directors of the district, together with its attorneys, secretary and chief engineer, will meet the representatives of the railroad and salt works Monday morning in San Francisco, at which time it is expected the contract, which will put the people of the valley into early possession of the irrigation system, will be signed.
This announcement was made tonight by M. W. Conkling, associate counsel of the district. It is understood that the Southern Pacific will take the $2,000,000 issue of district bonds for its claims and also pay off the prior claims of the minority bondholders, and that of the salt works; that all interests will urge a speedy judicial sale and that the railroad will bid in the property at the face value of the claims of the three interests, amounting to approximately $4,000,000, and deliver possession to the district.
A provision will be that the creditors will agree to allow Receiver Holabird to immediately put his feet of drogers into Mexico and clean the Alamo Canal to carry next summer's load.
The railroad and salt works, which, in the early part of the long litigation, were allies and more lately have fought each other bitterly, are now said to agree that for any reason the district does not realize possession they will operate it jointly.
We are so close together now that I believe the agreement will be made and that the district will obtain possession some time in January or as soon as the judicial sale can be made," Mr. Conkling said tonight.

EX-STATE TREASURER SCORES EVANGELISTS.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 18.—E. D. Roberts, widely-known banker and formerly State Treasurer, tonight announced at a banquet of the business interests of the city his opinion of the evangelists services under way here under direction of the combined churches of the city and presided over by Evangelists Brown and Curry.
The bank president's remarks were caustic and the word spread rapidly. There was an immediate conference by the evangelistic service committee, it is reported tonight.
Mr. Roberts' remarks were greeted by applause. The former State Treasurer said:
"I returned to town from San Francisco the other day and found that evangelists were cutting loose with great trades about us, telling us all how bad and wicked we are and what we all had to do to make our city purer and better. These fellows come into a town, get us all fussed up and stirred up, tear our town to pieces and advertise us to the world; and get $1200 for doing it. They say such things as this: 'If your wife goes to a hotel unaccompanied, maybe she isn't a lady, and the same thing if she happens to go to an apartment-house alone.'
"We are no worse than any other town and we do not need these kind of fellows to come here and tell us that stuff. I wish they were here tonight so I could tell it to them and ask them to cut out such stuff. These are the kind of things that do our town harm. I do not belong to any church but I believe in it and anybody can come to me for a worthy cause and get my dollar. If the people of this town want to do good they should get behind and support such a worthy cause as a municipal Christmas tree or something that would prove a real benefit once."
Rev. J. E. Brown, of the evangelistic team, issued a statement at his hotel tonight, with the declaration that the attack was the result of his Sunday sermon, "San Bernardino on the water-wagon."

"The attack was discussed by a committee tonight at the tabernacle and that was the conclusion, for he believes in a wet town and I believe in a dry one," said Brown.
BORN IN OLD MISSION.
[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 18.—Emanuel Roma, distinguished as the only person born at the old mission, was buried here today. He was 60 years old. His parents were in charge of the old mission during a period when the padre had taken charge of the newer mission at the Presidio, and the old mission was deserted awaiting the coming of Bishop Amat. He had one of the largest funerals ever held in the parochial church.

New Man Sworn in to Keep the Peace—Santa Fe Offers City New Depot Provided Public Park is Made of Adjacent Property by Citizens.
[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
RIVERSIDE, Nov. 18.—Chief of Police F. F. Corrington was removed from office by Mayor Ford at noon today, following the Chief's failure to heed the Mayor's request that he resign.
John Van Kirk, formerly connected with the department, was sworn in as Chief of the City Clerk on the receipt of the Mayor's notice of the dismissal of Corrington.
Further than that the action was for the "general good of the department," Mayor Ford would make no statement concerning the matter. It is known, however, that he has been persistently urged to make a change for some time. Action was deferred pending the result of Tuesday's election, which gave the Mayor a majority of forty-two over H. F. Zimmerman. In his letter to the retiring officer, the Mayor said:
"I appreciate the honesty and industry which you have displayed in the conduct of your office and I hereby extend to you my best wishes for your future success."
DEPOT BUILDING.
A beautiful depot building, in the type of architecture represented by the principal public buildings, is offered by the Santa Fe Railway Company, in a committee report filed with the City Council this afternoon.
The offer combines with it the proposal to make a public park of the property bounded by Seventh, Eighth, Vine and Evergreen streets. An option for the purchase of this property has been secured by Frank A. Miller and other citizens interested in the project, and this it is proposed shall be owned by the city and company, each controlling one-half.
The company asks for the abandonment of a portion of Olive street, over which its tracks are laid. The franchise ordinance adopted in 1911 attempted to abandon the street, but through some technicality the abandonment was void.
The matter was referred to a committee of the Council to work out details.

CONGESTION OF TRAFFIC BLOCKADES CANAL ZONE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Nov. 18.—The steamer Hattie Luckenbach arrived today from Balboa with New York cargo transhipped over the Panama Railroad. This is the second consignment received here since the Panama Canal closed. About 1000 tons will be discharged here and the steamer will proceed to San Francisco with balance of cargo tomorrow.
Capt. McDonald reports that the congestion on the railroad due to the enormous amount of freight to be handled is rapidly being cleaned up and that within two weeks more the railroad will be able to handle all the cargo offered and give prompt dispatch. When the steamer arrived at Balboa there were 115 steamers tied up at the Isthmian ports on account of the closing of the canal.
This caused a shortage of provisions in the entire zone and to relieve the pressing demand a government tug was dispatched to the nearest American port on the Atlantic for supplies.

Most of the steamers have been diverted to other routes and the government has served notice that it will not handle any more freight at either end of the railroad unless there is a steamer on the other side to receive it. This will give the Luckenbach line practically a monopoly of the railroad line.
The American-Hawaiian line is sending all steamers on the long route via Magellan. The first to arrive here from New York will be the Minnatan about November 27. Within a week she will be followed by the Arctonian, Towan and Columbian.

ELECTRICAL DANCE.
[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
